INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

We hope you are as excited as we are that this year's International Film Festival is here! This festival began in 2008 as an event to showcase the art and talent of international filmmakers to audiences in Southern New Jersey. Because of your support, we have grown into the premier international film festival in our area of New Jersey. This film festival is an opportunity for the Jewish Federation to provide an artistic program for the whole community, introducing festival-goers to the universality of foreign themes. We also welcome the opportunity to partner with our community sponsors and with the Levoy Theatre to bring this festival to life.

This year's lineup includes:

-The powerful and brave film The Innocents;

-From the country of Iceland a film with generous spirit and wit, Rams;

-Fire Birds, a film which in 2015 was nominated for 10 Israeli Academy Awards;

-Mustang, a Turkish feature which was nominated for an Academy award for Best Foreign Language Film of the Year.

Enjoy the films.

OPENING NIGHT

Wednesday, October 26, 7:00 pm

The Innocents

Director: Anne Fontaine

Drama

Language: French/Polish - 115 minutes

Warsaw, December 1945: the second World War is finally over and French Red Cross doctor Mathilde (Lou de Laage) is treating the last of the French survivors of the German camps. When a panicked Benedictine nun appears at the clinic begging Mathilde to follow her back to the convent, what she finds there is shocking: a holy sister about to give birth and several more in advanced stages of pregnancy. A non-believer, Mathilde enters the sisters' fiercely private world, dictated by the rituals of their order and the strict Rev. Mother (Agata Kulesza, Ida). Fearing the shame of exposure, the hostility of the occupying Soviet troops and local Polish communists and while facing an unprecedented crisis of faith, the nuns increasingly turn to Mathilde as their beliefs and traditions clash with harsh realities.

Sunday, October 30, 6:00 pm

Rams

Director: Wojciech Smarzowski,

Drama

Language: Icelandic - 93 minutes

In a secluded valley, estranged brothers Gummi and Kiddi live side by side tending to their prized ancestral sheep stock, despite not having spoken in 40 years. When a lethal disease suddenly infects Kiddi's sheep, all the animals in the area are culled to contain the outbreak, with many farmers abandoning their land. But the brothers don't give up so easily-and each tries to stave off the disaster in his own fashion: Kiddi by using his rifle and Gummi by using his wits. As the authorities close in, they will need to come together to save the special breed passed down for generations-and themselves-from extinction.

Wednesday, November 2, 7:00 pm

Fire Birds

Director: Amir Wolf

Comedy/Drama

Language: Hebrew, 107 minutes

An eighty-year-old man's body is found with three stab wounds to the chest and a number tattooed along his forearm. Amnon, a police detective and second generation Holocaust survivor, reluctantly accepts the case and struggles to bring it to a quick close. In the weeks leading up to his death Amikam, the victim, sought a 'membership card' to the most horrible club in the world: the club of Holocaust survivors. Despite his age he was still attractive and his charm was evident as he searched the obituaries for widows to beguile. As the story interweaves past and present, we witness each man's struggle to rejoin the society which rejected him.

CLOSING NIGHT

Sunday, November 6, 6:00 pm

Mustang

Director: Deniz Gamze

Drama

Language: Turkish, 97 minutes

Early summer. In a village in northern Turkey, Lale and her four sisters are walking home from school, playing innocently with some boys. The immorality of their play sets off a scandal that has unexpected consequences. The family home is progressively transformed into a prison; instruction in homemaking replaces school and marriages start being arranged. The five sisters who share a common passion for freedom, find ways of getting around the constraints imposed on them.
