2022 RULES AND REGULATIONS

Conduct While Attending Classes: At the Levoy Arts and Education Center, we work to maintain an atmosphere of care, respect, understanding, comradery, and enjoyment. However, the safety of all students, teachers, and staff comes first.

Proper participation and conduct by all students are expected and includes the following rules:

1. Respect others' feelings, property, and personal items.
2. Work with each other as a team.
3. Listen to your teachers.
4. No fighting, yelling, cursing, or bullying will be tolerated whatsoever.
5. Tell a teacher if someone/something is bothering or upsetting you.
6. Clean up after yourself.
7. Most importantly, have fun!

Our staff supervises all class activities and helps our students to resolve conflicts and problems as they come up. Behavioral redirection is seen as an opportunity for learning and approached accordingly. However, if a student continually disrupts the program or poses a safety risk to themselves or others, then a written behavioral notice will be sent home to the parent/guardian explaining the issue to be addressed. In the event that two written behavioral notices are sent home during the course of the class, the Levoy Theatre reserves the right to dismiss the student from the class without refund.

Clothing: Since our students will be participating in a variety of activities during the course of class, students are asked to wear both comfortable and moveable clothing to class. T-shirts, shorts, sweatpants, sneakers with socks would all qualify as appropriate class attire. Sandals/flip flops are not permitted and pose a safety issue to those moving around the space. Bare or socked feet will not be permitted in class. Inappropriate clothing may result in the student sitting out from certain activities.
